

Professional Profile...

Maureen Walsh

Maureen Walsh is a business therapist the co-founder of Life Works, Inc. No stranger to walking in many worlds, Maureen earned an undergraduate degree in art history and held graduate fellowships in the theatre department and business school, while studying for her marketing MBA. Her subsequent work in advertising grew into her own consulting firm assisting New York artists and healers evolve into successful business owners.

Her extensive background in the arts officially began with managing the Philadelphia Company, a theatre company devoted to staging New America plays. She was the Marketing Director of The Children's Theater Company in Minneapolis, the Brooklyn Academy of Music and the Joffrey Ballet.

A producer at heart, Maureen guides the development of new projects, creates and delivers specialized courses, and is the business side of Life Works. She designed Life Works' How To Make A Graceful Living course to help people find authentic work. Her most recent course, Reboot Your Life, encourages Boomers to take a new look at retirement.

Maureen spends much of her time traveling in support of the various Life Work activities. When she's not on the road, she and her husband divide their time between Santa Fe, New Mexico and Los Angeles, California.

Marilyn Graman & Maureen Walsh launched Life Works Books in 2002 with The Female Power Within: A Guide to Living a Gentler, More Meaningful Life. Their second book, There Is NO PRINCE and Other Truths Your Mother Never Told You was published Valentine's Day, 2003. How to Be Cherished is their third in a planned series of twelve books based on the technology presented at Life Works. Their fourth book, Finding Him, will also be published in 2005.

As authors, educators, life transformers and trainers of guidesses, these two very wise and compassionate women are dedicated to helping both women and men have more of what they want in a time when everything is possible.
